THE PRIDE OF HAWAII

There is one particular branch to which all Hawaiians—foreign and natives—look with pride and admiration. Hawaii has got horses which would be an honor to any other country. The racers presented annually to the public are of a superior class, and every year the men inclined to sport and adepts in the knowledge of horse flesh enter into further ventures.

A new race track will be built at Waianae, and all inducements will be made to the owners of Hawaiian bred horses—half bred or full bred. The younger generation of sportsmen who own Hawaiian trotting mares have a chance to appear with "youngsters" on the Waianae track by taking advantage of the chances offered by the owners of Creole, for services by that famous stallion.

The pedigree of Creole, the favorite pacer in Honolulu, will appear in another column. Every horseman in Hawaii knows the qualities of that phenomenal pacer. Proprietors of the horse could probably sell him at any time, but they have decided to hold him here for one season and give owners of mares a chance to increase the value of their stock, or to raise pacing or trotting stock unequalled in these islands.

In speaking of some of Creole's issue the Breeder and Sportsman says: "One of the fastest trotting fillies, owned at the Yerba Buena Stock Farm is a three-year-old called Winneola. She is by Creole 2:15 out of Winnie, by Privateer; second dam, Lady Lightfoot, by Flaxtail. She is of good size, and in conformation resembles her sire."

At the races which took place at Sacramento during the last week of July, Creole's daughter Javelin was entered in the 2:30 class for pacers for a purse of $1000. Javelin was a favorite and news in regard to her prowess will be received by the Australia.

Creole will stand for the season at the Club Stables and ought to be patronized by everybody who takes interest in promoting high-bred horses, and who desires in due time to see the old "plug" replaced by a dashing, fine half-bred horse.

HIS PETS.

Whenever we hear the virtuous missionaries and especially the Chief Justice talking about the "best" Hawaiians we have always become suspicious. We know probably as much about these "best" Hawaiians who are the pets of Mr. Judd as he does—and he knows a lot.

We cannot help mentioning a few of these "best" Hawaiians and their respective constituents will smile grimly when they hear them termed so by the immaculate Chief Justice.

G. P. Kamaooha has been admitted to practice in all the Courts of the republic, an honor rarely shown to any Hawaiian who cannot use the English language. Mr. Judd has taken a fancy to the man presumably because he sports a blue ribbon, has taken an oath and is a Representative in the Legislature. That Mr. Kamaooha was expelled from the reform Legislature of 1888, through the special agency of W. O. Smith, W. R. Castle and Kawaiui, on a charge of bribery, is of no account. He is now a full fledged lawyer, and ranks with Judd, Hartwell, Smith, Castle and the others.

Through the influence of the Chief Justice Mr. J. W. Kalua was appointed Circuit Judge of Maui. We have before us letters, not written by his political opponents, but by the staunch supporters of the republic in which we are told that this pet of the Chief Justice has gone back to his evil ways and that it takes "buckets of water" to cool his "Judicial" ardor and remind him of the tenor of some of the ten commendments. The people of Maui want to get rid of Kalua. He is there and as long as Judd doesn't kick he is good for another five years.

As a third pet we can mention the ex-reverend Iosepa who was forced out of his pulpit by his independent congregation. Who then through the combined efforts of Judd and Baldwin became a deputy-sheriff and who now, according to a native paper is imitating the despised royalists and, becoming a heathen, violates all Christian rules and gives his special attention to breaking commandment No. 10.

We could continue the string of names and incidents, but we think that our readers have heard enough of Mr. Judd's pets. Is there not a saying which claims that as the master so the servant.

THANKS DUE.

"God save us from our friends, we can generally pay off our enemies," said a leading cabinet minister this morning.

He was referring to the meeting between the officers of the Citizens' Guard and ex-Marshall Hitchcock.

What Hitchcock said was of little account. He was evidently under the weather and didn't know what he was talking about.

He abused the royalists, the army, the haoles generally and everybody in the most blasphemous manner.

Well and good; he is a privileged character, and you can no more make a gentleman out of the ex-Marshall than you can get a butcher's bill paid from the treasury.

It was Mr. McStocker who gave the deathblow to the patience of the Cabinet and nearly drove Frank Hatch crazy. Mr. McStocker talked. He referred to the claims of Durrell and others, and stated in response to Hitchcock that "they will get it where the chicken got the axe."

As far as the claimants are concerned nothing better could have happened than this expression of a high official of the Hawaiian Government. As far as the Ministers are concerned more explanations will have to be made and more complications will arise.

As the different foreign representatives have been informed to-day Mr. F. B. McStocker did not speak his insulting remarks towards President Cleveland and other heads of governments in a private capacity, it was not Mr. McStocker of San Francisco, or of the Oceanic wharf, or the special officer of Marshal Wilson from January 17th, 1893, who spoke. It was the captain of the Citizens' Guard; the Deputy Collector-General of customs, the high Government official who, at an official meeting, declared that Mr. Durrell, whose case has been taken up by the Government of the United States, would get it "where the chicken got the axe."

We sympathize with Mr. Hatch and his colleagues, but why don't they muzzle these "outspoken" heroes who lack tact, common sense and decency?

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

It was quite interesting to be present at the McCully sale a few days ago. A very finely executed copy of the "Three Fates," the famous painting of Michael Angelo, was for sale. The learned Chief Justice, who has spent four months in Europe and consequently knows all about the old masters, wanted the painting. He generously stated that he wouldn't mind giving $5000 (!) for the original. The name of McCully on the back of the painting was too much for the C. J.—he never did believe in honest judges—and the well-known Macenas, Emmanuel Cunha, bought the splendid copy for the Central Union Art Gallery, where the C. J. and other connoisseurs now have a chance to admire it. A gentleman who knows nearly as much about paintings as does the C. J. (after his four months' stay in Europe) offered Mr. Cunha $300 for the copy. He was refused. Cunha seems not to be afraid of "three fates" even if the C. J. has reasons to fear his fate.

The statement of Hatch through his official organ that he considered Mr. Wodehouse the representative of Great Britain to Hawaii appears to the average citizen a gross and uncalled-for insult to Commissioner Hawes.

Now, since Mr. L. A. Thurston once more is revelling in cable schemes and subsidies wouldn't it be well to get a public explanation of the Inter Island cable scheme in which he and Bartholomew were heavily interested some years ago and out of which W. W. Hall and the other promoters only found a few yards of rotten cable.

It is very characteristic indeed of this government, and for that matter of the community, that on no public or private occasions are arrangements made for the proper accommodation of newspaper men. The courts take the bun though in this regard. We do not know if the Judges, or the clerks, or the Marshal are to blame, so we prefer to blame them all. To have no seats for press representatives at the opening of a Court is even worse than the prevention by the Health officer of giving chances to Advertiser representatives to catch the cholera. Get us a table and some chair C. J.

The Road Supervisor seems very anxious to build sidewalks on our principal streets and road. Can he explain why he allows the disgraceful sidewalk outside the Cooke residence on King and Alapai streets to exist. It is about time that he squares the walk, no matter what the financial qualities of the owners of the lots.

So the cable nigger has come out of the fence and turned up in the shape of—not Thurston's American cable company—but Z. S. Spalding and a London cable company. Yet Z. S. Spalding, in looks at least, is as far from being a nigger as possible.

The cable scheme is an iniquitous job, and it won't pay for the acquisition of Necker Island and French Frigate Shoals.

Bickel v. Hayne or Hayne v. Bickel. The pot calls the kettle black. And the public laugh and Ben Dillingham keeps on raking in the shekels on the railroad. More power to him.

Timely Topics.

Honolulu, July 22, 1895.

It cannot be denied that the war cloud which hangs over the world at present is getting darker and darker. It is a historical fact that the end of each century has always been fraught with bloodshed and strife, internally as well as externally. The great powers of Europe today are making and unmaking alliances of all kinds. The fact is that diplomacy to-day is using every means to postpone the day when the crash must come and gain time for the different countries to prepare themselves for the gigantic struggle which will and must take place before the present generation dates its letters in the year 1900. Turkey is threatened from all sides. The Russian bear is extending his claws and licking his blood-thirsty tongue towards the East and South in anticipation of gain. The passive and cold brother nations who inhabit the Scandinavian peninsula are now glaring ferociously ready to spring at each other's throats. Germany, under its impetuous, indiscreet imperial master, is drifting into the deceptive maelstrom of conquest, and war, in which all past experience, all knowledge gained through the horrors of war are forgotten, and where only false sentiment and sham patriotism are ruling.

And while the giants get ready for the great war their leaders have realized one thing, and that is, that no army will have a show, no militia a chance, except provided with the indispensable bicycle. And no wonder that the monarchical countries of Europe prefer the "Monarch" to any other kind, and supply their "wheeling cavalry" with that favorite brand.

We have watched proceedings in the great countries with a great deal of care, and we have secured the sole agency for Hawaii of the Monarch Cycle. We have realized that, not alone a large stock is necessary, but that a workshop, in which all needed repairs can be done is in the interest of our patrons, and we have established one above our stores on Fort street. This "bicycle infirmary" will attend to any "sickness" which the wheel may meet through accident or lack of care. Our prices are far below veterinary figures. We fix the Monarchs sold by us at cost price if ever they should need it. We have everything on hand and have secured the services of a most experienced bicycle man, whose work we guarantee.

As the bicycle is not only of advantage in war but love, we wish to call the attention of the young boys and girls who have to spend their vacations in Honolulu, that we have wheels just suitable for them. If daddy can't send them to the country for a trip—or buy them a bow-wow—let them ask him for a Monarch. It will give more pleasure and last much longer than even a volcano trip.
